

Reflections

Monday - Friday, September 21 - 25, 2020

A great way to start the week

Our free meditations now stand at 208,498.

Everyone take a bow.

Then my computer crashed

My apologies that I haven't been able to send a reflections note out this week. Tough to do on my phone. Lori did challenge me to start typing with my thumbs. Always something to learn! Computer is back from PJ's hospital and all better as of Friday.

Meditation Apps

Those of you who volunteered to evaluate meditation apps. Please do so. New deadline is Sunday, October 4, midnight.

I'm out of pocket

Reminder: I'm teaching NDE Intensive from Saturday, September 26 through Thursday, October 1.

I'll not be available much during that time. But, if the place catches fire please call me. Fully back in the saddle Monday, October 5.

Met with the finance committee of the board

Paul and I met with the Frank Kenna and Esther Du Toit to go over the detailed budgets of our plan for the permanent expansion of our online division. Good news. They wanted to get started right away! Full board approval is on Thursday, October 8.
